

COURSE INSTRUCTOR:

David J. Graieg

David Jonathan Graieg has a Bachelor of Electrical and Electronic Engineering from the University of Western Australia and is a Masters of Theology graduate from Dallas Theological Seminary (2012). David grew up in Australia where he was involved with Overseas Christian Fellowship in Perth for a number of years. From 2013 to 2015 he served as an adjunct lecturer at East Asia School of Theology and the Baptist Theological Seminary both in Singapore. David founded the Reasonable Faith Chapter in Singapore and was involved in ministry with his local church Wesley Methodist. David currently serves with City Bible Forum in Australia.

He is happily married to Grace, and God has blessed them with three young children, Sophie, Charlotte, and Elizabeth.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Equips the student to thoughtfully and effectively respond to basic objections to Christianity frequently encountered in Asia today. Besides addressing specific questions that arise in the Asian context, this course also explores the biblical, theological and historical foundations for apologetics, and examines and analyzes various methodologies used to persuade others of the truth of Christianity.
