

FIGHTING FOR YOUR MARRIAGE (FAMILY)

A Dialogue on Issues & Challenges

Facing Marriages & Families Today

Wed, Sep 9, 3.30 - 6.30 pm, at DUMC, PJ (including Tea)

Many marriages and families are at a crossroad or even in a crisis. At a time when more and more are falling apart we need first to identify and understand what contributes to this state of marital and family distress; then to address it with insights and skills to restore and reinvigorate such relationships, as well as to prevent it from (further) distress and divorce.

Here's an opportunity to dialogue with someone with the above concerns (plus several more specific ones that you may have) and who has the concern (and experience and education) for such marriages and families as you.

Rev Dr Danny Goh was an Associate Professor with two seminaries (SBC and TCA College) for 13 years before returning to the pastorate recently. Dr Goh specializes in Marital Therapy and Family Life Education, and holds an MA and PhD in Marriage & Family Therapy from Fuller Seminary, School of Psychology. He is presently pastor of The Bible Church as well as an adjunct lecturer. He is married to Nancy for 31 years and they have two girls, ages 27 and 24.
